Stewards' Notice

Inquiry into allegations of live baiting

Greyhound Racing SA Stewards today continued the inquiry relating to two people allegedly involved in live baiting together with a third person associated with the investigation.

The inquiry has been adjourned to a date to be fixed.

Suspensions for the three individuals in place since the start of the inquiry on 24 August 2022 remain in effect.

However, the stand-down that had applied to all greyhounds trained on the premises was lifted as at 00:01am today (Tuesday 11 October).

With this matter also the subject of an RSPCA South Australia investigation, Greyhound Racing SA will not make any further comment at this stage.
