

STEWARDS' REPORT

Strathalbyn

Friday 27th January 2017

Weather Condition: FINE

Track Condition: GOOD

General	Midway through today's race meeting, an air conditioning unit malfunctioned which resulted in a rise in temperature in the kennel house. Greyhounds that had competed and the ones that were to compete were monitored by the veterinary surgeon, and no problems were reported by the vet. The air conditioning unit was later repaired and the meeting continued as scheduled.
